PRESS RELEASE
“OCEANA CHILDREN’S TRUST FUND DIRECT SERVICES PROPSAL”
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oceana Children’s Trust Fund is seeking Direct Services Proposals for community-based child abuse and neglect prevention programs and services in Oceana County. Projects are targeted to families with risk factors or challenges that could impact their health and well-being. Prospective proposals should be designed to address the unique needs in the local communities in regard to preventing child abuse and neglect. March 30, 2018 is the application deadline to submit a proposal.

The Request for Proposal and Direct Services Application can be found at:
<http://www.callcove.com> or on the COVE (Communities Overcoming Violent Encounters) Facebook page.

If you would like more information about this topic, please contact Tracy Davis at c/o COVE: by email: tdavis@callcove.com.

COVE is an independent, nonprofit 501c3 organization serving victims of domestic violence and or sexual assault in Mason, Lake and Oceana Counties. The mission of COVE is to provide shelter, protection and advocacy to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault as well as to educate the community on the root causes of violence.
