

Our Mission

The mission of Communities Overcoming Violent Encounters is to provide shelter, protection and advocacy to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault as well as to educate the community on the root causes of violence. Services are provided in Mason, Lake and Oceana counties to men, women and their children.

Please help us collect incorrect printed material and update any online information about COVE! Simply contact us to make sure we are aware of any websites, Facebook pages, or other locations with any type of information or locations displaying printed material containing information that differs from our Mission.

Please share this information in the communities we serve: Mason, Lake and Oceana Counties. COVE is not a homeless shelter or only a women's shelter. Services are provided to men, women and their children who are victims of domestic violence or sexual assault in Mason, Oceana and Lake Counties. A few of these services include a 24-Hour Crisis Line: 800-950-5808; safety planning - which may include time in COVE shelter, advocacy for a variety of needs; group support and crisis support.

For additional information, including if your group, organization, or church would like to have someone speak about COVE, please contact Sandy Francis, Development and Public Relations Manager at 231-843-2541, ext. 8.

If you or someone you know is in need or services, please call our CRISIS Line 24 Hours/day, 365 days a year.
